

Course Weekly Outline

Course Instructor	Ammar taleb diab saleh
E_mail	Dr.ammaraltememy@gmail.com
Title	Management and production poultry
Course Coordinator	Autumnal
Course Objective	Introduce students to how projects such as poultry broiler chickens and laying hens as well as the management of hatchery management and how to introduce students to the poultry processing facilities and receive chicks and breeding and how to reach out to a higher production of whether eggs or meat
Course Description	1- management commenced poultry 2- Management broiler and layer 3- Management Hatchery
Textbook	1- poultry production 2- poultry Management
References	1- poultry feed from waste 2- management of the poultry 3- inter net
Course Assessment	Term Tests	Laboratory	Quizzes	Final E. practical	Final Exam
	(20%)	(15%)	(5%)	20%	(40%)
General Notes	The system to Article quarterly rather than annually and offers during the autumn

Course weekly Outline

week	Date	Topics Covered	Lab. Experiment Assignments	Notes
1		Poultry science and the concept of project management	Classification of poultry
2		Type of poultry houses	Anatomy of a bird
3		Hatching and management hatchery	Break the eggs and to identify its components
4		Management and the production of broiler chickens	Type of poultry houses
5		Management and the production of Laying hens	Appropriate for poultry environmental condition
6		Force molting	Great poultry halls
7		Management and the production parents	First exam
8		Lighting program	Hatchery types and specification
9		First exam	Candling of hatching eggs
10		Poultry farms in hot climates and ministration	Hatchability scientific and commercial
11		Poultry diseases	Types of water contained and mangers and incubators
12		Kind of diseases that infect poultry	The most important daily operation to monitor the birds
13		Poultry processing management	Massacres and preparation of poultry meat
14		Measures to prevent the transmission of diseases	Economic feasibility of projects poultry account
15		Second exam	Second exam

Instructor Signature:

Dean Signature: